

34 TORINO FILM FESTIVAL

PRESS RELEASE

ACTRESS JASMINE TRINCA WILL BE THE PATRONESS OF THE 34TH TORINO FILM FESTIVAL

Turin, November 14th, 2016

The actress Jasmine Trinca will be the master of ceremonies at the opening evening of the 34th Torino Film Festival: the inauguration will be held on November 18th at the Lingotto, with a gala and a preview screening of the film Between Us, directed by Rafael Palacio Illingworth.

"I am delighted to return to Turin," says Jasmine Trinca, "to accompany a Festival which is free like few others, always able to anticipate new concepts of cinema with a curiosity and a gaze which are more similar to a Cinema Bambino than a Cinema Giovane."

"Jasmine is an actress I have always admired and respected; I am particularly proud to have her alongside me during the presentation of the festival's program," declares Festival director Emanuela Martini.

Jasmine Trinca debuted at 19 years of age in the movie The Son's Room by Nanni Moretti. She returned to the silver screen in The Best of Youth (2003), which was followed by films such as Romanzo these are just a few of the prestigious prizes she has received over the years. We will soon see her in Slam, by Andrea Molaioli, which will have its world premiere at the 34th Torino Film Festival.
