

33 TORINO FILM FESTIVAL

PRESS RELEASE

The poster of the 33rd Torino Film Festival: a tribute to Orson Welles

Turin - September 21st, 2015

The poster of the 33rd Torino Film Festival (November 20 – 28, 2015) is dedicated to Orson Welles.

Director Emanuela Martini explains the reason of this choice: “On the centenary of Orson Welles’ birth, on 6 May 1915, and on the 30th anniversary of his death, on 10 October 1985, Torino Film Festival pays tribute to the greatest debut filmmaker of all times (he was 25 years old when he directed Citizen Kane). We, therefore, dedicate the 33rd edition of the festival to Wells, not only with his image on this year’s poster but also with the presentation of the restored copies of three masterpieces, Citizen Kane (1941), Mr. Arkadin (1955) and Touch of Evil (1958). We hope festival-goers will enjoy this tribute.”
