SYNOPSIS

Frances (Greta Gerwig) lives in New York, but she doesn't really have an apartment. Frances is an apprentice for a dance company, but she's not really a dancer. Frances has a best friend named Sophie, but they aren't really speaking anymore. Frances throws herself headlong into her dreams, even as their possible reality dwindles. Frances wants so much more than she has, but lives her life with unaccountable joy and lightness. FRANCES HA is a modern comic fable in which Noah Baumbach explores New York, friendship, class, ambition, failure, and redemption.

ABOUT RT FEATURES

The Brazilian film production company RT Features began in 2005 with very clear objectives: to develop original film projects in Brazil and internationally. Starting with encouraging the creation of new stories and acquiring the rights to literary works, graphic novels and nonfiction books, RT Features has established itself as the leading Brazilian production company, extending its involvement to projects in the U.S. and Latin America. Within this model, the company naturally ended up promoting the creation and execution of literary projects by developing collections and individual books. Its main partner in the publishing industry is Companhia das Letras. RT Features is currently producing films and series in partnership with The Kennedy/ Marshall Company, Red Hour Films, Plan B, Grupo Conspiração and the Globo Television Network, and is also developing projects in collaboration with Julian Fellowes, Karim Aïnouz, Noah Baumbach, and David Seidler, among others.
